WILSON MALE AND FEMALE

HIGH SCHOOL,

WILSON, N. C.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

The Principal has associated with him PROFESSOR AVERETT and LADY, of Halifax County, Virginia. Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is a teacher of many years experience—was Professor of Mathematics in the Danville Female College until he resigned his position to take his place in the Confederate army. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARMISTEAD.

All the teachers will reside in the College Buildings. Young ladies can obtain board with the Principal, and boys can secure board with private families in the town.

The session will comprise twenty weeks. The terms per session will be—

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PEEL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Saturday Evening, Dec. 29, 1866.

Is North Carolina a State?

The general tenor of the Standard, the rebel organ in North Carolina, for some days, has been to make the impression, that there is no such State in the Union as North Carolina—that our dear old mother, one of the original thirteen, is only a district in fact, and is simply a so called State—not yet a territory or a State, but may become one and then the other, through the good will of Congress, under the fatherly fostering care of Messrs. Holden and Pool, and "Fauntleroy," and Messrs. Harris, of Rutherford, and Jenkins, of Gaston. We suppose, when our Lords Holden and Pool attain to the supreme rule of the "district," Fauntleroy will be promoted to the position of Poet Laureate, and Messrs. Harris and Jenkins to those of Usher and Chamberlain. The "District" will then be a paradise, when governed by the grey spirits, a mixture of the white and the black.

But the people of the "District, formerly known as the State of North Carolina," are curious enough to desire to know how North Carolina became a "District." As far back as anterior to the first revolution, the people of this province ordained and decreed, in the exercise of their then unquestioned sovereignty, in Congress assembled, that the province should be, henceforth forever, known as the State of North Carolina. Throughout that memorable conflict she bore that title, was so recognized during the confederation, and, as such, bore an important part in the war of the first revolution and in the formation of the Federal Constitution, and is so recognized in that instrument to this day. Never, otherwise, until several of her recusant and unworthy sons, instigated by malice aforethought, determined to decapitate her, to soil her honor and integrity, conceived the purpose to induce the Congress, by statute, to write her down a "District," or, as the Standard, the rebel organ in North Carolina, interpolates, a "judicial" District.

North Carolina was unquestionably a State until Messrs. Holden and Pool determined that she was nothing but a "district." During the entire war of the "rebellion," she was recognized in all the legislation of the U. S. Congress, in all the official acts and proclamations of President Lincoln, in all the acts and orders of the Federal Generals, as the "State of North Carolina," and as still one of the States of the Union. From the close of the war down to the present day, all the legislation of Congress, except its simple refusal to receive our Representatives, all the acts and proclamations of President Johnson, all the acts of the executive departments of the government, all the acts of the Supreme Court of the United States, have acknowledged her as a State, and as a State in the Union. As a State, President Johnson required her to re-organize her civil government after the war; as a State he required her to vote upon the amendment to the Constitution of the U. S. abolishing slavery, to repudiate her State debt and to ignore the fact and the doctrine of secession. Ex. Prov. Gov. Holden so acknowledged her officially.

If she be not a State, then he was never a Governor, then slavery is not abolished, then she owes no debt. Congress emphatically declared her to be a State in the Union, when it proposed the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, when it passed the internal revenue and direct tax bills, when it re-organized the Judicial Districts, and passed all laws in any wise affecting her. If any law of Congress or any act of the government is designed to operate in North Carolina, it is because she is a State. If she be a "district" she is without laws. Congress has no power to make laws for any other district except the District of Columbia, nor has that body as yet attempted it. To this very day, Congress acknowledges her right as a State in the Union, by submitting, for her adoption or rejection, the Howard amendment, and by keeping up the U. S. Court organization for the State of North Carolina. Mr. Seward, the Secretary of State, recognizes her as a State in the Union in all his official communications with the Executive as the Governor of North Carolina. Mr. McCulloch, the Secretary of the Treasury, so acknowledges her in all his official operations in the State; so of the Secretary of War and the rest. It was upon this ground and upon this ground only that Mr. Harlan, the Secretary of the Interior, without waiting for special instructions from the President, as we understand, pledged to Gov. Swain, the State Agent, the Agricultural scrip donated by Congress to all the States.

Now can Mr. Holden suppose that a body like the Congress of the United States can, at the suggestion of himself and Mr. Pool, ignore all these pregnant facts, and, at a single dash of the pen, decimate a great State of this Union and reduce her to a district or a territory? Is it mere worthless badinage to ask, has Congress the right to do this thing? Will not that body turn upon him and Mr. Pool, and say "Is thy servant a dog, that he should do this thing?" Has Mr. Holden come to this? Has his petty malice reduced him to this strait, that after almost a life-long defence of the Constitution of the United States, having claimed for them the right of secession, which we never did believe and never did claim for them,—has he come to this out of mere malice against his own people and State, and mere partizan sycophancy in the hope of feathering his own nest,—come to make the admission, that in this government of defined and divided powers, the Congress alone is omnipotent, that it alone is above the Constitution and above the people? Shame upon him and Mr. Pool! We blush for them.

North Carolina, by the Constitution, by the laws of the land, by recognition of every branch of the government, by the decision of jurists and statesmen everywhere, is a State one of the number of the United States, and in the Union. She has never been out of the Union. Her revolutionary claim, to being a separate and independent State, was not based upon constitutional right and legitimacy, but was submitted to the arbitrament of the sword, and was a failure. The power to break up this Union, peaceably, exists nowhere but in the free assent of all the contracting parties, all the States themselves. The power does not lie in the government itself, much less in one of its departments. The attempt, on the part of one or ten States, to leave the Union was revolutionary; so would be the attempt of Congress, or of the Northern States, to force the Southern States out. The proposition, therefore, to reduce the Southern States to Districts or Territories is a proposition to dissolve the Union. Those men in the South who favor this project belie themselves when they presume to call themselves Union men. If there are rebels and traitors in the South, they are the traitors.

The Legislature—Its Labors.

The captions of the Acts, passed by the Legislature at its recent meeting, which we published a few days ago, may not exhibit a very great amount of perfected legislation, but the quality and importance of it reflect great credit upon the Assembly. The impetus which it has given, we trust, to the cause of Internal Improvement, without imposing any additional burthens of taxation upon the people, is destined to afford more practical and substantial aid to the people than any merely legal or purely financial schemes that could have been devised,—however necessary these may be. The various bills which were passed, in aid of the Railroads, indeed, may fairly be designated, as was remarked in the House of Commons by that gifted advocate of Internal Improvements, Col. Cowan, "Bills for the relief of the people."—If, under the new indulgence and privileges accorded them, the Fayetteville and Coalfields, the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford, and the Western N. C. Roads, can, as there is every reason to hope they can, prosecute their works to the projected completion, brighter auspices will dawn for North Carolina. Each mile that may be constructed, affording, as it will, increased facilities of transportation to market, will be a mint of itself, putting money in circulation among our impecunious and impoverished people, and thus leading to the prosecution of new industries and the development of new enterprises.

While there are not upon the floor of either House of the Legislature so many leading minds, perhaps, as has frequently been the case, we have rarely, if ever, seen, in any body, more working, practical talent, more excellent judgment or sound good sense. Business has seldom, heretofore, been despatched with greater promptitude and thoroughness or with less expenditure of gas and buncombe. While many of the older members are known to the State, as having heretofore served in legislative or other capacities, the number of rising young men in the body is remarkable. We regret that the pressure of other duties, during the late meeting, prevented us from alluding particularly to the intelligent labors of many of these latter gentlemen, who are full of promise to themselves and the State. We hope, at a future and suitable time, to bring them, so far as we can, prominently before the public.

When the Legislature re-assembles, it will have much to do, and we hope that the members will proceed to discharge what is before them in as short a period as is consistent with its proper consideration, and in the same spirit of patriotism, independence and intelligence that has characterized all their labors. Among the first subjects that will engage its attention,—or rather that of the Senate, for both measures have passed their final readings in the other branch,—will be the "Relief Bill" reported from the Committee on that subject, and the very important Bill, introduced by Mr. Richardson, of Bladen, relative to exemptions from execution; a bill, by the way, the passage of which was much facilitated by his own active efforts and those of Mr. Allen, the excellent representative from the county of Brunswick.

Let not the Legislature be deterred by the threatening aspect of affairs from the full performance of their proper duty. While bad men are laboring, with a fiendish spirit, to pull down and degrade the State, let them do everything in their power to build it up. Let them devise and enact everthing feasible for the relief of the people and the interests of North Carolina, and leave after-results and developments to a higher Power.

——The Newbern papers say that everything connected with the arrangements for the grand tournament, to be held in that city, on 1st. of January, promises a pleasing and imposing entertainment. As previously announced, Gov. Vance will be present and deliver the address. The tournament and the accompanying sociabilities are to be participated in by the Northern residents and natives indiscriminately. This is well. The reunion will doubtless prove productive of good results.

——The colored fire companies paraded the streets of Wilmington, on the 27th., in full uniform. They presented a very creditable appearance.

——The "Meteor Base Ball Club" is the name of the new club just started in Newbern. The Journal of Commerce admonishes the other clubs of the State to look out for "shooting-stars." The Pioneers, Tar-Heels or Universities would soon make "falling stars" of our meteoric friends!

——The freedmen of Wilmington are to have a grand parade on New Year's day.

A terrible conflagration broke out in Morris's Block, corner of Clay and Front Levee, Vicksburg, Mississippi, on Monday night, and destroyed the entire block of thirty houses.

A man complains, in the Little Rock Standard, that he stole a horse, got caught, and received thirty-nine from a black jack sprout on the naked back, and all before breakfast!

Judge Barnes.

We have just received the following letter from Judge Barnes, in which he denies having authorized the use of his name by the Washington Star, in reference to the Holden-Stevens bill. This is what we supposed, at first.

We entirely approve the principle, that the Judges of our Courts should avoid party politics, and all active participation in partizan affinities, but the questions involved in the relations of the State of North Carolina with the Federal Government, or rather with the Congress, are above party and really have nothing to do with party, but they immediately concern every citizen of the State, and none more than the Judges of our Courts. We cannot for a moment suppose that Judge Barnes, or any of our Judges, can sympathize with any movement which proposes to break up the State government under which they hold office, which they are sworn to support, and whose laws they are sworn to administer, except in so far as those laws conflict with the Constitution and laws of the United States. Hence we think that Judge Barnes, in his extreme caution, has not expressed himself as fully on this question as he ought to have done. His associate, Judge Buxton, has set him, we think, a better example.

By the way, the "Standard" says that the Washington "Star" was not authorized to speak of the opinions of any one from this State, in regard to this movement, except those North Carolinians who were in Washington at the time, viz: Messrs. Holden, Pool, Taylor, Harris and Jenkins. But it is evident the "Star" would not have taken the liberty of publishing the names of citizens of this State, as sympathising with this movement, if the list had not been furnished it. And we know no one who could have done it so readily as Mr. Holden himself. But read what Judge Barnes says:

MURFREESBORO, N. C., Dec. 26th. 1866.

Editors of the Sentinel:—A copy of your paper, of the 20th instant, containing an extract from the Washington Star, was handed to me by a friend on yesterday.

Since I have been honored with the high and honorable office of Judge, I have studiously avoided any participation in political affairs, and have directed my best energies to the faithful and zealous discharge of my official duties, and while I continue to occupy that high position the same rule of action shall govern my conduct. I regret, therefore, that the influence of my name, however humble, should be used either for or against any measure pending before the Congress of the United States, and, in the particular instance referred to, it was done without my knowledge.

Yours, very respectfully,
DAVID A. BARNES.

AN ACT TO ENHANCE THE VALUE OF THE BONDS, TO BE ISSUED FOR THE COMPLETION OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Whereas, The Legislature of North Carolina, at its session of 1854-'55, passed "An act entitled an Act to incorporate the Western North Carolina Railroad Company," and, at its session of 1860-'61, an Act entitled "An Act to amend the charter of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company;" and, whereas, by the combined force of said acts, the faith of the State of North Carolina was pledged for the payment of four millions of dollars in bonds of the State, a portion of which bonds have already been issued; and, whereas, it is manifestly the interest of the people of the whole State that the residue of said bonds, when issued, shall command a high price in market: Therefore

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Public Treasurer be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed, whenever it shall become his duty under the provisions of said acts, passed at the session of 1854'55 and 1860-'61, to issue bonds of the State to the amount of fifty thousand dollars, or more, to mortgage an equal amount of the stock which the State now holds in the North Carolina Railroad, as collateral security for the payment of said bonds, and to execute and deliver, with each several bonds, a deed of mortgage for an equal amount of stock to said North Carolina Railroad, said mortgage to be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the Comptroller, to constitute a part of said bond, and to be transferable in like manner with it, as provided in the charter of said Western North Carolina Railroad Company; and, further, that such mortgages shall have all the force and effect, in law and equity, of registered mortgages without actual registry.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors of said Western North Carolina Railroad Company be, and the same are hereby authorized, and empowered to issue bonds of the Company, running for such term of years as they may deem expedient, and bearing interest at a rate not greater than eight per cent. per annum; and to make, execute and deliver a deed or deeds of mortgage, conveying the whole or a portion of the right, title, and interest of the Company in any or all the estate, both real and personal, belonging to said Company, or in any manner pertaining to the same, to the purchaser or purchasers of said bonds of the Company, and conditioned for securing the payment of said bonds at maturity; and also to pledge the profits of said Company, or so much thereof, as may be necessary for the payment of the interest on said bonds as it falls due; and said bonds shall be issued by said President and Directors, whenever it shall appear to them necessary for the completion of said Road, to raise other funds in addition to the State's subscription, and the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be applied for the purpose of finishing the Road to its Western termini.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In General Assembly, read three times and ratified, this 19th day of December, A. D. 1866.

(Signed) R. Y. McADEN,
Speaker House of Commons.
M. E. MANLY,
Speaker of Senate.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 27, 1866.

Editors of the Sentinel:—The above is a true copy of the original bill, as passed and ratified. Please give the same a place in your paper and oblige Yours truly,

JAMES R. LOVE.

France pays her Minister to Portugal a higher salary and reckons him as of a higher grade than her Minister to the United States. Can't this country, by operations either in Mexico or elsewhere, manage to raise herself a little in Gallic estimation?

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Editor of the Standard boasts that he has the confidence of the Union party of the State. We suppose this is preparatory to a political betrayal. He could boast his Whiggery and betray, he could boast his States' rights and betray, he could boast his Democracy and betray, he could boast his loyal devotion to the South,—aye, swear to it,—and betray, he could boast the confidence of President Johnson and betray. How often has he taken you to task, and falsely charged that you were not supporting the policy of the President, while he, warmed, by the kindness of President Johnson, into a little life from the freezing scorn to which his political tergiversations had consigned him, was, like the serpent, preparing to sting his benefactor? Boasting that he had the confidence of the President, that he might deceive the good people of the State, and boasting that he had the confidence of the Union men of the State, that he might deceive the President, he has been guilty of a double betrayal. In his recent trip to Washington he did not call on the President, and if he had done so he would have been spurned from his presence, for President Johnson knows him now, as the old Whigs knew him after deserting them, as the old Democrats knew him after deserting them, as the old States' rights men knew him after deserting them, and as the Confederates knew him, when, after having signed the ordinance of secession, and pledged, to make it good, to "the last dollar and the last man," he deserted and betrayed them! The President knows him now!

Ah! Mr. Holden, you cannot compare your Unionism with Mr. Waugh's. He has the confidence of his constituents and of all honest men, who know him, and you have the confidence of none, beyond the Radical clique whom you can betray as easily (how easy you can do it?) as you betrayed the President.

Mr. Holden says of Mr. Hodnett: "We do not believe he would knowingly act with the rebels." Very kind and charitable in you, Mr. Holden, thus to insinuate that Mr. Hodnett knew no better. Permit us to assure you, Mr. Holden, if you have been Governor, that Mr. Hodnett has more honest sense than you have, and that he knows you and knows that, while you were signing the secession ordinance in Raleigh, and urging war, he was "pleading for the Union," to use his own forcible language, among the farmers of Caswell.

The Standard complains that Mr. Davis endeavored to produce the impression that the statement that questions were put to Messrs. Harris and Jenkins as to their business in Washington City was untrue. Mr. Davis stated distinctly that the statement was untrue, and so did Mr. Jenkins. The Standard says that Mr. Blythe was "required" to go before the Committee and that Messrs. Harris and Jenkins were also required to go before it. This is so stated as to create the false impression that these gentlemen were before the Committee at its instance. Mr. Blythe, having made certain statements, was requested to go before the Committee and give information, and at his instance the other gentlemen were requested to attend.—The Standard says that the Committee attempted to "brow-beat" these gentlemen. That is a pretty word and is as untrue as it is uncomplimentary to them. How kind is it in Mr. Holden to take these "dear chicks" under his protecting wings!

Mr. Blythe explained and said that what he meant by persecution was, that Howard amendment men were stigmatized and slandered and charged with being in favor of negro suffrage and negro equality!

It is a grievous and persecuting thing, Mr. Holden, to be charged with being in favor of negro suffrage! And now it we shall say that you are in favor of it, shall we persecute you and slander you thereby? Your plan of reconstruction has negro suffrage in it. You are in favor of it. You talk about "Union principles learned at the feet of Henry Clay!" Ain't you ashamed of yourself? Don't you know how you abused and slandered, and vilified and belied Henry Clay? Don't you know how you fanned the flames of sectional strife by denouncing this same "Henry Clay and his Northern allies," as you used to term them? Are you not afraid of his ghost? The efforts to invoke the talismanic name of Henry Clay to promote the iniquitous schemes of disappointed men, in degrading their State, is only equalled by the baseness of the slanders which they heaped upon him while living. No, Mr. Holden, you taught the people of North Carolina secession, and you know it, and this is the chief reason why they will not trust you. Why now, because they are unhappy—made so by your teachings—do you abuse and slander them? If you have any love for your native State, cease, we pray you, to abuse her people, and let them alone, for they will not confide in you. By the way, Governor, you speak of Government as existing here by the "permission" of Congress. How did it happen, that while you were permitted by President Johnson to be Governor, you did not find out that "Congress alone had the power to establish a Government for the State?" Please answer this question—now p-l-e-a-s-e do.

"Give me a crumb, Thad, and I'll black thy boot."

There appears to be a great difference of opinion on the part of the Franco-Mexican journals in regard to the present position and the future prospects of Maximilian in Mexico. Advices to the 9th state that Maximilian was at Orizaba. From Vera Cruz we learn that the French authorities had seized the Vera Cruz Custom House, although the Imperialist officials protested strongly against it.

We have further advices from Europe by the cable. Surratt was put on board the United States corvette Swatara at Alexandria, Egypt, on Saturday last. Orders have been issued at Florence to arm two vessels to support the claims of Italy against Turkey in regard to the affairs of the steamer Prince Thomas. The town of Miraguane, Hayti, has been entirely destroyed by an incendiary fire.

INTERPOSITION OF LAW.—Daniel R. Goodloe, Esq., the United States Marshal for North Carolina, arrived in this city yesterday morning, by the Baltimore boat. He leaves at noon to-day for Roanoke Island, to take possession of the immense quantity of goods, cargo of the steamer Sheridan, recovered from the wreckers, and to receive into his custody a large number of prisoners who have been arrested for purloining the same.—Norfolk Day Book.

It is understood that Judge Wayne, and not Chief Justice Chase, as previously reported, will grant a writ of habeas corpus, under which Dr. Mudd, Spangler and McLaughlin will be brought from the Dry Tortugas for trial by the civil courts.

A special dispatch from Washington to the New York Post, states that the President will hereafter refuse the use of troops in the Southern States, except in cases of riot.

A Western man, speaking of the Pacific Railroad, says it is "one of the funniest coincidences in the world that almost every alternate section of land on each side of the road belongs to some member of Congress."

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Dec. 29, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Oliver Ditson & Co., Musical Publishers, Boston, announce new and valuable publications.

See Court advertisements from the counties of Beaufort and Hyde.

Houses for rent for 1867: See advertisements of R. G. Lewis, Esq., and Messrs. Briggs & Dodd.

Rev. Dr. Lacy's Select School for boys will be resumed on the 10th. prox.

Rev. Dr. Mason proposes to open a school for boys on the 17th. prox. We know no one who is more competent to undertake the education of youth.

FREEDMEN'S CELEBRATION.—We learn that the Freedmen of the City will celebrate the first of January, the anniversary of Emancipation, by a procession and other observances. This is natural and harmless, provided decorum and good order prevail, as, we are satisfied, will be the case.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS take place on Monday, the 21st proximo. C. B. Root, Esq., and W. D. Haywood, Esq., are the opposing candidates for Mayor. We suppose that there are the usual number of candidates for Commissioners in the several Wards, though we have heard none positively announced.

A BILL was introduced in the Legislature, during its recent session, to establish a Criminal Court for the city of Wilmington. We need a Municipal Court in Raleigh, for the trial and punishment of misdemeanors and petty offences. The growing importance of the city and the increase of its population demand such a tribunal. By means of it, many cases, which go to cumber the dockets of the State Courts, might be summarily and satisfactorily disposed of. We are satisfied that the existence of such a Court would be a powerful agent in suppressing disorder, and those petty violations of law which lead to graver offences.

THERE WAS no mail north of Weldon last evening. The terribly cold weather has placed a temporary embargo upon travel. From every quarter we have accounts of the almost unprecedented severity of the weather. With us the biting season is telling upon the markets and the price of wood. The former are scantily supplied and the latter is held at exorbitant rates. God help the poor!

SKATING,—an usual enjoyment in this latitude,—is in full vogue. One or two more days like the past two or three will give us ice in abundance for the next Summer.

THE CHRISTIAN SUN.—Rev. Wm. B. Wellons, of the Christian Church, proposes to resume the publication of the Christian Sun in the town of Suffolk, Va. It will be devoted to Religion, Morality, Temperance, Literature, News, and the support of the principles of the Christian Church. He will be assisted in the editorial department by Revs. J. N. Manning and C. A. Apple, of this State. The experience and ability of Mr. Wellons will make it a good paper.—The price will be $3 a year.

WE REGARD it as extremely unfortunate—not alone for the South, but for the country—that the ear of Congress is so completely monopolized by the so-called loyalists of the South. Some of them are gentlemen of ability and estimable character, like Mr. Durant, of Louisiana; but others, like the Messrs. Hamilton, of Texas, and Cutler, of New Orleans, are not entitled to speak for any self-respecting community. Not a few of these gentlemen allege that they could not live in safety at their homes; that "the rebel element," "the pro-slavery spirit," and "the proscriptive temper" are so virulent that Union men, such as they are too obnoxious to be reconized, and too much hated to be endured.—It is charitable to suppose that part of these gentry interpret the facts by their fears, and allow their opinions to be moulded by their apprehensions. But others are smarting under disappointed ambition, and the spite engendered by discovered meanness. They abandoned the rebellion—like Stokes—when they saw a failing cause, and earned the contempt of those whom they had originally inveigled; or they sought to ride into power by excessive professions of devotion to the President's policy—like Holden—and when repudiated, hated those whom they failed to dupe. It is natural enough that the South should prefer to trust men who have always been regarded as honest and high-minded, to men who, however able, have been held to be tricky. Mr. Pool, for instance, was beaten for Senator in North Carolina not so much because of his Unionism, as because of his acknowledged meanness in acquiescing in the statement that he had entered the Legislature of the State to embarrass the Confederate Government. Judge Manly was elected not because of his secessionism,—for he was originally opposed to secession,—but because he is a high-toned gentleman, in whose hands the people felt the good name of the Old North State would be safe.

But, what we would suggest is that the people of the South cannot, in justice to themselves, leave their action to be misrepresented by this class of gentlemen. Scattered through the South are numbers of gentlemen of the highest character, commanding the entire confidence of their respective communities; some of whom have never dabbled in politics, others of whom have earned a national repute as staunch Union men in former days. Let these gentlemen be invited by public meetings in their counties and districts to repair to this city, and here reside for a brief period, to put themselves in communication with the least partisan of our public men, and give them a more accurate understanding of the feelings and wishes of the people of the South than can possibly be obtained from those who are more or less influenced by personal considerations, often of the baser sort. There are gentlemen in Congress who are disposed to be just, who want to get at the exact truth.—Nat. Intel.

Our Saturday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28, P. M.

Dispatches at military head-quarters confirm the "Fort Phil. Kearney" Massacre. Col. H. B. Carrington, commanding the Fort, writes that the Indians, numbering 3,000, attacked the soldiers near the Fort, killing the entire party and horribly mutilating the bodies of Col. Fetterman, Capt. Brown and Lieut. Drummond. The 21 men were mostly new recruits.

The President has issued a Proclamation, announcing that he has received information, through the French Minister, that on and after Jan. 1, U. S. vessels shall enter the ports of France and dependencies without paying higher duties on tonnage than are exacted from French citizens. A reciprocal indulgence will be granted to French vessels, entering our ports.

The conversation reported between the President and Mr. Eggleson is pure fiction. The President says the interview lasted but five minutes, and the conversation was not of a political character.

Great Snow Storm.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.

Additional particulars of the great snow storm evidence its violence. It raged with great violence at Harlem, where a row of six houses, on Alexander avenue, was unroofed.

A number of houses on Wills avenue were also unroofed and blown down.

The storm was very violent at Hudson, and every avenue to the city was blocked. Four passenger cars were blown from the track, but without serious damage.

On the Western roads, the storm was even more severe, and no trains arrived from that direction this afternoon.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND

In Warren County, N. C.

ON TUESDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY, 1867, the Subscriber, as Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel T. Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the House tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands.

One tract containing about 457 acres, adjoining the first mentioned tract on the North, and that of Lake Lancaster on the South. This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 809 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Mr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.

One tract known as the "Arcola Tract" situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.

The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.

The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

L. S.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; the burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE, VIRGINIA.

IN FULL OPERATION.

THIS TIME-HONORED INSTITUTION IS ONCE more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz: of ANCIENT LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY and NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and MODERN LANGUAGES. In addition to the above the Board of Trustees have established a school of Commercial Science, with the view of giving to the young men of the country a Business Education.

To graduates in all these schools, Diplomas are granted, and the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts are conferred upon students who accomplish a certain course. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years, and with thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local cause. We profess to educate young men not only mentally and morally but physically also.

BOARD IS SIXTEEN DOLLARS PER MONTH.

Tuition from $40 to $90, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tickets for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

Rooms in the College free of charge, but the student provides his own furniture, fuel and lights.—Young men who are preparing for the ministry and those disabled by the late war who are unable to pay their tuition, will be allowed to attend any or all of the schools free of charge.

This College is situated near Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg county, Va.

Arrangements are made to transport students from Ridgway Depot, on the Raleigh and Weldon Railroad, where a conveyance leaves Roanoke station on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the Wolf Trap Depot, on the same road, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We solicit a liberal patronage from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, from the West, South and Southwest.

Students will be received at any time. The second term will commence on the 6th. day of February next. Young men will be received and prepared for the College proper.

For further particulars address the undersigned at Boydton, Mecklenburg county, Va.

GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia

MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and Instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Letters.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified. By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
